Completely Modern Home Built for Associational Missionary and Family . . .

More than eight thousand Baptists of Bradley County now own a beautiful, seven-room, brick veneer house in lovely Stuart Park, Cleveland, Tennessee, located on Seventeenth Street at Fairmont Avenue.

The house has modern ceil heat and is complete in every respect. One large room is adapted perfectly to use for the office of our Associational Missionary.

This house was begun without one penny in the treasury for this work. But with full confidence that the Baptists of Bradley County would take care of the finances, and with an implicit faith in our Great, Rich, Lord, your building committee has completed the job without any discord of interruption. This working together has, in fact, created a feeling of brotherhood that has made us closer friends. We confidently expect greater unity among our Baptist people because of their efforts to pay for this, their own, and only visible property that they have in common.

Sincerely,

Building Committee
